ADAMS KHUTBAH REMINDER

The additional notes below are to help you benefit from the Khutbah.

“And do not wish for what Allah has bestowed upon some of you over the others. . .”
(4:32)

Glory be to Allah, the Creator of all things. He creates whatever He wills however He wills. “In His hands are the keys of the heavens and the earth; He increases sustenance for whomever He wills and constrains for whomever He wills.” (42:12) Nothing is attained without His permission, nor is anything lost without His will. He is the Ruler of all creation, absolute in His dominion, Watchful and Knowing of all things.

The eye is distracted by the glitter of worldly possessions. It forgets the hand of the Absolute that gives to Whomever He wills. It sees only the glitter, the pomp, the luster, the happiness. The eye desires; the heart festers; the mind obsesses; the body acts. We forget the warning of the Prophet (SAW): “Envy devours good deeds as fire devours wood” (Muslim). Do we not see that Allah tests those He wills as He wills: some with appearances of happiness and others of need?

O, Allah! Transformer of hearts, Cleanser of souls! Protect our hearts from the disease of envy. Safeguard our good deeds from its fire. Make Your blessings on us shine in our eyes, and make us happy for the happiness of others. Replace the desire for the blessings of others with submission to Your will. Increase our love for You, and fill our hearts with love for others through our love for You.
