ADAMS KHUTBAH REMINDER

The additional notes below are to help you benefit from the Khutbah.

“So fear Allah as much as you are able; and listen; and obey; and give [in the way of Allah ]; it is better for your selves. And whoever is protected from the stinginess of one’s soul - it is those who will be the successful.” (64:16)

Glory be to Allah, the Creator and Sustainer of all things in existence. It is He Who creates all desirable things and brings them into existence; He Who distributes them as He wills to whom He wills; and He Who withholds from others. Glory be to Him Who blesses as a test and withhold as a test – to see who from His servants will give from what they receive and who will be patient.

Allah (SWT) gives to whomever He wills however He wills; but He commands those who receive to give as they have received. The zakah is one manifestation of that command; to withhold from zakah is to invite the fire, and to fulfill it is to court paradise. It is His infinite wisdom that makes the wealthy a mercy to the impoverished in this world, and the impoverished a mercy to the wealthy in the next.

We pray that Allah (SWT) open our hearts to each other and make us satisfied in our roles as mercy to each other. We pray that Allah (SWT) fulfill our needs, open our hands, and replace the love of wealth with the love of Allah.
